HOAGLAND'S NEW PATENT SHAFT COUPLING!

W. E. COOPER

HAS PURCHASED THE RIGHT FOR THIS County of the above Patent and will hereafter use it in the construction of all the Vehicles manufactured at his extensive

Carriage Factory,
Corner of Second and Morrison Streets

He respectfully refers to the following

CARD.

Having examined the New Patent Shaft Coupling, invented by H. B. Hoagland, we feel pleasure in informing the public that in our opinion it is the safest and best method of connecting shafts or tongues to all vehicles that has ever been used

It fastens without bolt or screw and is therefore easily and speedily separated It rests on Gutta Percha so as to be entirely free from the rattling sound which so often disturbs restless horses It is easily changed so that the shafts or tongue may be detached in an instant, and is convenient, safe and secure

It is easy to change to this style of coupling any buggy or other vehicle now in use and with small expense. We have come to the conclusion to use this new invention ourselves and recommend its use in all cases We consider it far superior to the Brewster Patent heretofore considered the best in use

OREGON.

The P T Co have two boats per day running between Oregon City and Portland, yet their warehouses in that city are crowded three boats not being able to move the freight forward as fast as it is brought down the river

A sociable was given at the residence of Chas Pope in Oregon City, for the benefit of the Methodist Church, on last Friday evening, on which occasion the music and singing was furnished by Miss Georgia Pope, Rev John and James Sellwood and W H Pope It was an agreeable affair, according to the Enterprise

The children connected with St Paul's Episcopal Sunday School of Oregon City, will have a picnic excursion this (Saturday) morning. They meet at the church at 7 o'clock, and from there go to the steamer Senator, which will take them to Milwaukie where they will spend the day The relatives of the children are invited to attend A pleasant time for the little folk may be expected the Enterprise says

The Statesman's "last shot" has the following "Before our next issue the people will have spoken, and the question will be decided whether Oregon is to stand before the world as a State in favor of the most nefarious scheme that ever was proposed to a nation, or whether she will cast the imputation from her with scorn, and disdainfully thrust aside those who so lightly value their country's fame as to even whisper the possibility of repudiation

Ralph Geer, Clerk of Marion county, informs the Statesman that there is a good deal of carelessness among holders of U S land patents about recording their documents Already has this neglect led to difficulty in more than one instance Parties own donation claims, deed them move away the land is transferred from hand to hand and at last some purchaser undertakes to trace his title and finds to his dismay that there is nothing to show title in the first party deeding it. That party is gone and it is impossible to ascertain whether he had a patent or not. The only remedy for this is for every one who buys a donation claim to insist on having the patent recorded and then he is safe, and those who take under him Otherwise confusion and trouble is almost sure to arise

The Masquerade at Oregon City was a grand affair for that burg The company was small but very select The costumes of the ladies, though not displaying any great recherche or distinction of characters, being chiefly of the shepherdess species, were very neat and appropriate, Notable among the fancy costumes was Miss M—s as the Bandit's daughter Mrs M—fer made the Jaunty Red Riding Hood's Miss C—'s Italian Peasant Girl was finely rendered, Miss S— as the Press, appropriately costumed in garments of paper Mrs R—tin Mrs C—kle and Misses H—ton and T— also attracted attention by beauty and propriety of dress. But to the gentlemen must be given the meed of praise for close attention to artistic effect The stately presence of F—k W—d was finely set off in the garb of a nondescript, he somewhat resembling an umbo in the rainbow The sylph like form of Theo Cl—k in the familiar dress of a Chinaman was a success S B—ely in the uniform of a General looked as if he could do duty in the commissary department at least. W S T—ll was gotten up as a clown J A—bey as a recent importation The pensive loveliness of F—dk A—ght was well exhibited in the ideal Turk's dress.

THE WEST

Mrs. Sue Robinson Getzler, formerly well known in Oregon, was granted a divorce from C H Getzler in Virginia City, Nevada May 18th

Considerable excitement has recently been created in Elko, about a new mining region said to be situated about 25 miles north of Elko

The Red Bluff Independent says Let the poor, starving, famishing men in the city come out and answer to roll call in the harvest fields of Northern California where they will receive ample compensation for their labor where it is sorely needed

Congress is now considering a bill to appropriate $2 264 000 for the construction, preservation and repair of fortifications including $100 000 for Fort Point, $100 000 for Lime Point and $50 000 for Alcatraz, making for California $250 000 or about one-fifth of the entire appropriation proposed for the next fiscal year

Hon Jesse Applegate, at the head of a railroad surveying party, has been in Jackson and Josephine counties all the week says the Sentinel, surveying the California and Oregon Central Railroad At last accounts he had passed Grave Creek going north on the main stage road He is of the opinion that in the vicinity of the main stage road is the best route he has yet seen By the Salt Springs near the place where Gen Lane fought the Indians in 1853 is 1 000 feet lower and a better route than up Trail Creek

All the uproar the opposition are making about railroads is simply fuss and feathers If some of these gentlemen who are known to be responsible as Mr Ladd for instance had taken the lead in starting railroad projects sooner and establishing them on a sound basis the railroad situation would now be very different

If Mr Ladd or any other gentlemen has made a bad investment as for example in the stock of a military road we are not able to see that such a fact affords any reason for making an appeal to Republicans to vote the Democratic ticket.

Mr Gaston Against Himself

The letter of Mr J Gaston to which we alluded yesterday, appeared the same day as an editorial letter in the Herald In addition to the issue of veracity which Mr Gaston attempts to make with us the letter contains a charge that Senator Williams has "violated pledges" by introducing a bill to make up the deficiency of land in the grant which the east side has obtained The issue which he attempts to make with us we shall attend to at a time when more important affairs do not press The charge against Senator Williams Mr Gaston may reconcile if he can with the following which he wrote concerning Senator Williams more than two weeks after he is alleged to have "violated pledges" by introducing the bill referred to

In this letter I desire to say a word personal of Senator Williams No matter what may have been heretofore said, justice requires me to say that he has labored faithfully for the interests of Oregon on this question Senator Williams has occupied a very difficult and embarrassing position, and in the heat of this railroad controversy, and under the pressure of the pecuniary interests of the men engaged in these railroads, his motives have not gone unquestioned A different feeling or state of affairs could not have been expected But now that the battle is over, and both enterprises are fairly successful mainly by his labors we should not hesitate to do him full and complete justice For myself I am now entirely satisfied that he has acted conscientiously in the matter, and to the best of his judgment and ability, and although we did not agree as to what was right and best for West Side interests, yet his proposition is doubtless the best thing we could secure under the circumstances Many persons in Oregon think it a very easy job to secure a railroad land grant It is the very reverse. It is the most difficult piece of legislation in Congress; and anything less than the most careful management and untiring efforts, will result in failure To such management, and to such efforts, Senator Williams superadded all his political influence (and I tell you that is a power here) and he deserves well of our people without distinction of party It is an unusual thing for a Senator to leave his seat in the Senate, and go into the House as lobbyist but Senator Williams did that kind of work (and so did Mr Corbett) and had it not been for such efforts, the bill would have hung by the ears until July, and probably never reached a hearing, instead of being, as it is, the first and only land grant bill yet passed at this session

One of their Inconsistencies

It is asserted by the Herald in one breath that the change in the direction of the Humboldt road injures the prospects of the proposed road on the west side of the Wallamet valley and in the next breath an offer is made to "bet that the termination of the road that was to come in from the Central Pacific on the Ladd Pengra route, was to be Eugene City Those persons who are always blowing about building railroads but who never build any can try their ingenuity in making these statements of theirs harmonize If the road they are all so sorely distressed about was to come no further than Eugene, what interest could the west side counties have in it?

The Railroad Question—Letter from Hon Jesse Applegate.

PORTLAND, Oregon, June 2, 1870

EDITOR OREGONIAN:

Since my arrival in this city, I have heard our Senators in Congress (particularly Judge Williams) censured for the amendment made by the Senate to the bill granting lands to a railroad to connect the Oregon and California railroad in the State of Oregon with the Central Pacific Railroad in the State of Nevada.

A grant of land is asked for this road from the Government on the ground that it will be valuable to the Government for military purposes, and it commends itself to the favor of the people of Oregon as affording them a railroad connection with the East

The best location for any line of communication is that which accommodates the largest number of people by the shortest possible route.

As it is practicable to make this connection in Rogue river valley, the most southern in the State a glance at the map will satisfy any one that the amendment supported by our Senators satisfies both these conditions, and that a connection made anywhere further north would be in violation of them, precisely in proportion to its departure from the most southern connection.

I think, therefore, when this amendment to the Humboldt road is understood by the people of Oregon, they will give our Senators credit for it as being the best of their public acts

JESSE APPLEGATE

A Letter from Senator Williams

[From the Roseburg Ensign]

Through the kindness of a friend we are permitted to publish the following letter from Senator Williams

WASHINGTON, May 4, 1870

MY DEAR SIR: The Oregon Branch of the Pacific Railroad Bill passed the Senate to day I have amended it so as to make it terminate at a junction with the Oregon and California Co in the Rogue River Valley I have considered this necessary to enable the people of Southern Oregon to have an outlet towards the East.

It appeared to me that if the Bill passed with the road terminating at Eugene City, as proposed the Central Pacific Co, now building their road towards Oregon might diverge from a direct route to Jackson county and go over to a junction with the Humboldt and Eugene City road, and so on by the way of Eugene City to Portland so that the Umpqua and Rogue river valleys would be left without a direct connection It is not necessary that I should state the ground of my opinion but I have good ground for the supposition I suppose those persons directly interested in the road will be displeased with the amendment I am sorry to disoblige them, but am determined that the people of Southern Oregon shall not be deprived of a road.

As the road will run now it will pass through the Klamath Lake country and in that respect will be as valuable to the east side of the mountains as though it was down to Eugene City on that side Yours truly, GEO H WILLIAMS

Straws

An incident happened yesterday which demonstrates a very shabby foundation for the easy victory the Democratic managers claim to win on Monday next, in this county A journeyman butcher, whose fidelity to the Republican party is well known, and who is always prompt in advocating its claims, was accosted by a Democratic friend of the so called strongest candidate on the county ticket the nominee for County Clerk and bantered to bet $100 that the Democratic clerk would be elected He promptly accepted the bet and staked the money Soon after friends of the Democratic bettor solicited him to withdraw the bet. Not succeeding the candidate himself mark the acknowledged strongest man on the Democratic county ticket called on our Republican friend and asked him to withdraw the bet but it was no go He did not want his Democratic friend to lose his money Friendly and correct but shows a want of faith in his success Very inconsistent were the boasting of his followers

Met On Their Own Ground

Mr Holladay may be a dangerous man. Whether he is or no is not an issue to be decided in our election. Of one thing, however, the people of Oregon are aware. They know that his investments here [illegible] enterprise he is ever [illegible] to awaken and [illegible].

But this development [illegible] much sooner had Oregon capitalists possessed the energy and nerve to take hold of it. Had Mr Ladd given the weight of his name to the undertaking we cannot [illegible] that the company that was formed in 1864 and designated to receive the land grant would have been successful. Then the west side would have had a road. And probably that dangerous man Mr Holladay would have been deterred from coming to Oregon. But the people of the west side were not supported by the men who claim to be their champions now. Mr Ladd Mr Carter and others who could have taken hold of the enterprise kept aloof. That however, was their own business. But it is not in order for men who have neglected the wants of Oregon or failed to profit by their opportunities to cry "monopoly" on the appearance of somebody who will do something.

It is to be regretted that those who oppose the Republican party have forced the campaign to take a direction which should be foreign to it. But as they would have it so they shall be met on their own ground.

Repudiation Not Forgotten

Republicans will not forget that the principles of their party are at stake in the approaching election. Nor will the infamy of the Democratic platform be forgotten. Repudiation is still in issue. A repudiation triumph here would disgrace the State just as much as if the few men who have instigated all the recent uproar on account of railroads had not been disappointed in a land grant. They who believe in upholding the honor of the country will support the only party that is pledged to uphold it. There is only one course that is consistent with the honor and welfare of Oregon and of the nation. That course is to go straight against the party that advocates repudiation. Again, the Republicans of other States have a right to expect that their party brethren in Oregon will resolutely uphold and battle for the principles of the party. It is due to the Administration of President Grant which all true Republicans take pride in that the fight should be made squarely and with a purpose to uphold President Grant who is so fully carrying out a policy that redounds to the honor and credit of the country. The supporters of the Administration cannot be unmindful of their duty. Principles are at stake, and the real, solid issues of the times must not be forgotten.

Jealousy Among Monopolists

It is plain to any observer that the whole secret of the uproar that is now being made in regard to railroads, except in so far as it is joined in by professional politicians who hope to gain a party advantage by it, lies in a feeling of jealousy on the part of certain gentlemen against Ben Holladay. Before Mr Holladay came to Oregon those gentlemen stood at the head of Oregon enterprise, such as it was, and were regarded as the capitalists of the State. They had the field, but did not fill it. When, therefore, another capitalist came in, he was regarded as a tresspasser. He is published as a "foreigner," and denounced as an enemy of the State. The people of Oregon are extremely glad to see these capitalists these monopolists pitted against each other. It is to be hoped that they will hold each other level. But it is amusing to observe how jealous one side is of the other.

Applegate's Letter

We call attention to the letter of Hon Jesse Applegate on the railroad question. There is no one who is better acquainted with the proposed railroad routes of this State, or the wants of Oregon, as to its railroad systems, than Mr Applegate. It will be seen that he is of opinion that the change in the route of the road that is to be built from the Humboldt into Oregon, meets the interests and wants of the State. He is aware that the route through Rogue river valley is a short and direct one, and every way feasible for the construction of a railroad however much some of the stockholders in the military road may dislike it.

That Floating Grant

A floating grant is one of the things now most distressing to those west side champions who would do nothing for the west side at a time they could have taken hold of the enterprise, put it on a firm foundation and made it successful. That "floating grant," however is a grant which has not yet been made. But if it were already made it would only effect an extension to supply the deficiency in the grant confirmed to the east side by the late Legislature. Such extensions to supply deficiencies are very frequently made. In fact they are common to all or nearly all roads recently aided by grants of land.

Very Indignant

The men who have heretofore been the monopolists of Oregon appear to be very much excited to find that there is a rival in the field. It has taken them a good while to work themselves up to a realization of the situation and now when they find they can't have everything their own way, as of old they are very indignant about it.

The infamous course of George H Williams, which is now the subject of so much comment in the Herald consists simply in his failure to do what a ring wanted done in their own interest and for their own profit. They wanted a railroad to run in a certain direction so as to enhance the value of their acres, but Williams was resolved that the southern counties should have a railroad and therefore changed it to another route so that while it will serve all the rest of the State it will also serve the southern counties that otherwise would be cut off.

Republicans are to remember that the present contest so far as the Senatorial question is concerned amounts to this—Are we to have a Republican or Democratic Senator? That is the simple question. The contest on the Senator is the same as the contest on Governor. It is a party issue and Republicans are not to be led away from it by the clamor of a few men for their private interests.

When Mr Ladd came out so strongly and indignantly against the repudiation resolution of the Democratic platform he made several converts whom he cannot now carry back. They have no interest in his land grant.

The Scheme of the Central Pacific R R Co and the Military Road Land Jobbers

The furore concerning the amendment to the Humboldt and Oregon Branch railroad bill by which the Oregon connection is directed to be made at Rogue River instead of at Eugene City has not been raised by the people of Oregon nor by any man or men who have a single particle of interest [illegible]. The people of Oregon [illegible] by the action of Senator Williams [illegible] best [illegible]. A few private pockets [illegible] swelled with ill-gotten [illegible] wrung from the people of Oregon have been [illegible] to despoil them of a single dollar but to prevent them from closing upon a few more hundreds of thousands or millions of dollars, at the expense of the people.

There are just two sorts of men engaged in this howl: one class of them are damaged in the prospect of an [illegible] in which the people to whom they make such frantic appeals have no possible interest; the other class are politicians who seek to gain adventitious political aid from the occurrence of a furore which involves no political principle whatever. The first have shown that their political principles go for nothing as against their money bags; that they are capable of being Republicans or Democrats according as it may affect their pockets; the second that they are driven from the field of legitimate political controversy and reduced to the necessity of relying for success upon clap-trap demagoguing humbug and falsehood.

There is nothing in the whole matter but just this: A few men of Oregon, rich men, who have a military road franchise by which they are the owners of a large land grant, obtained without having done or having any intent to do in good faith any part of the work conditioned for by the act of Congress giving the grant, entered into a scheme with the Central Pacific Railroad Co to not only deprive all the southern half of the State of all railroad facilities but to throw the whole State of Oregon into the clutches of the Central Pacific Railroad Co. It was in their plan to betray the people of Oregon into the hands of a monopoly already so huge that its Vice President openly and profanely boasts that he has California in his breeches pocket, and who as openly and profanely boasts that he will also put Oregon into his pocket along with California, that he will yet carry the whole Pacific coast in his pocket as he would his port-monnaie. The schemers would be made more immensely wealthy than they now are and for that they would sell out the people of Southern Oregon Portland and the whole State. This is no idle talk. It is not many months since that while in conversation with Mr B J Pengra who is one of the military road land owners and one of the present conspirators against the Republican party of Oregon the writer of this heard Mr Pengra say in substance that it was the purpose of the Central Pacific Railroad Co to build a railroad into Oregon and to capture, own and control every foot of railroad in this State. He represented C P Huntington Vice President of that company as saying, "By G—d I will yet set Ben Holladay afloat! He may go on and mortgage his steamships and mortgage his road, build his road to Eugene City if he can and then, by G—d, I'll come into Oregon right there with my road and will build it down the valley within a half mile of his road and will carry for fifteen years for nothing if it takes that long to set Ben Holladay afloat." This is not by any means all the profanity or bitterness and threatening which Mr Pengra represented Huntington as having made use of. The temper and purposes of the Central P R R Co seemed to be well known to Mr Pengra—not a strange circumstance at all as he and his fellow conspirators of Oregon were then and had been for months negotiating the scheme which Senator Williams has recently upset. The writer got the impression from Mr Pengra on the occasion alluded to, that it was the intention of the Railroad Company in case the Humboldt-Oregon land grant could be obtained from Congress to divert the California and Oregon road at some point in the Sacramento valley, from the original route for which Congress several years ago gave a land subsidy, to cross the Sierra Nevada mountains and make connection with the Humboldt Oregon branch at some point east of the mountains. Any one who will take the trouble to consult the map will discover that this would leave Rogue river and the Umpqua—all of Oregon south of Eugene City—out in the cold and by making it impossible for the Oregon Company to connect with any road at the State line in Rogue river because of there being no road there to connect with would also render it impossible for any Oregon company to build a road south of the State line. No company of either California or Oregon would or could afford to build a road from the head of the Sacramento to the State line nor from the head of the Wallamet to the State line unless there were a road to be met there so as to make a continuous line through from the navigable waters of the Sacramento to those of the Wallamet.

This scheme of the Central Pacific Railroad Company, who own the California and Oregon road contemplated the perfidy of non-compliance with the terms of the Congressional grant as well as to render it financially impossible for any road to be built even through Rogue river and Umpqua valleys. It was this perfidious scheme which Mr Williams discovered and frustrated by adding an amendment to secure the building of a road which shall run entirely through to the southern boundary of the State. If that prevents the Central Pacific Railroad Company from putting Oregon into its breeches pocket and carrying it there as it would carry its port monnaie we apprehend that Oregon has great reason to be grateful. If frustrating the scheme has balked a lot of moneyed nabobs from doubling and trebling their wealth at the expense of the best interests of the whole State we see no reason why the people should therefore be stirred from their political faith and standing by the anguished howl of the soulless speculators and land grabbers.

The massacre of Jews in Roumania is one of the most horrible atrocities of modern times. Nothing has occurred within the present generation more calculated to excite the horror of the civilized world. At the thought of so general and atrocious a slaughter the heart sickens. The people of America who live under the rule of perfect and free toleration can scarcely realise so terrible a crime. In the interest of humanity the civilized nations should interpose.

The Speaking at the Court House

[illegible] the Court House last night to hear Col W W Chapman and J F Caples Esq. Col Chapman a man who has always acted with the Democratic party of Oregon who has in fact been always one of the first champions of that party [illegible] a plain practical and a telling [illegible] State [illegible]. He said the party is fully committed to the doctrine of repudiation and he could not in view of his sacred obligations to his country go with them on that issue.

The principal part of his speech however was devoted to the railroad questions now exercising the public mind. He said there is an attempt now being made to slaughter Senator Williams for his action in the Senate upon the Humboldt Oregon branch railroad. For once he and Senator Williams were very near together whatever might happen in the future. What Senator Williams had done in the matter of the Humboldt branch bill was right and for the very best interests of the whole State. In that matter he said Senator Williams has followed exactly the policy which has always been agreed upon as the true policy of Portland and of Oregon. The true railroad system for Oregon it has always been agreed by everybody but a few speculators is to have a Northern Pacific Railroad connection with the Atlantic States a branch road from Portland, via the Columbia river gap to Salt Lake, connecting with the Union Pacific road two roads up the Wallamet to Eugene and thence one road to the California State line. It has always been agreed that the Columbia branch road is the great paramount desideratum for Portland the whole of the Wallamet valley and Eastern Oregon. To that route the Eugene Humboldt scheme has been a rival and a stumbling block and it has been an incubus upon the efforts of the true friends of Oregon in securing the true railroad system for the State. The memorial of the Oregon Legislature two years ago to Congress on the subject of railroads, was one of the means of attracting the attention of Congress and Eastern capitalists to the importance of a northern railroad to connect with Oregon via the valley of the Columbia and it had led to the incorporation of the Columbia Branch Company and a Congressional land subsidy. It had also led the Northern Pacific Railroad Company to understand the necessity of a terminus for their road on the Columbia river. The correctness of the railroad system he had indicated had been verified by every event since the date of that memorial. The transcontinental commerce of Oregon and the entire North Pacific coast should naturally go by the way of the Columbia river. While it is agreed on all hands that our vital interests imperatively demand the Columbia branch road it is an alarming fact that nothing is being done to build that road. The reason why is clear. The efforts of certain parties, in Oregon and elsewhere, whose principal occupation is to count their dollars have been united in opposition to that road and in favor of the Eugene-Humboldt scheme. That road and the men who are urging it are opposed to our Columbia branch road and are striving to make it impossible that it shall ever be built. The Eugene-Humboldt road could not be an important road for Oregon and its defeat injures only the personal interests of a few speculators upon the labor of Oregon. It is not a question for the people of the State to divide upon, politically. The people of Portland ought to be the last in the world to assail Senator Williams, or to complain of him for his action upon the Eugene-Humboldt bill, and this in consideration of what he has done in behalf of their paramount railroad interests. Portland has been greatly favored. To day she has more important grand trunk lines of railroad pointing toward her than has San Francisco. The latter city has but one trans continental line the Central Pacific, and that road is a monopoly which has California in its clutch and at its mercy. Portland, if our true railroad system be carried out, will have three directions of egress to the Atlantic States via the Northern Pacific, the Columbia Branch and Union Pacific and by State line connecting with the present overland line. If the Northern Pacific and Central Pacific had been permitted to consummate their scheme of crushing out the Columbia Branch road Portland would be at the mercy of the Northern Pacific monopoly and the southern half of the State would be in the clutch of the Central Pacific Co as the owners of the Humboldt road even as it now has the State of California. Since that Co had fastened its fangs upon the vitals of California it had been directing its eyes to Oregon as a very jewel to be seized. The Eugene Humboldt scheme was one of the measures by which the Central Pacific Co sought to grasp the State. Its defeat as effected by Senator Williams is the salvation of the State from that grasping merciless monopoly, and it will go far toward securing for us the railroad system demanded by the real interests of our people.

A railroad he said built into Oregon from California, unless we could also have an Atlantic connection by way of the Columbia would sap and undermine the interests of this State and would draw the life blood of our commerce out to fatten California and our captors. By the time such a road having only a California terminus should reach Portland it would find our streets overgrown with grass. A road however commencing at Portland and going south would build up our city develop our valley resources and add by every mile of extension to the wealth of the State. And all these effects would be doubled by a connection with the Atlantic States via the Columbia river route. The Eugene Humboldt scheme and the scheme [illegible] enemies of the Columbia branch road and of the road or roads beginning at Portland. They are therefore not only the enemies of Southern Oregon but of Portland the [illegible] counties of the Wallamet valley and of all Eastern Oregon. If the Humboldt scheme as desired by the Central Pacific Co succeed eventually at the expense of our prospective Columbia river road Portland will be but an outside trading post. In the name of the people of Oregon and of Portland especially he thanked Senator Williams for defeating the speculators' scheme. He had been [illegible] and now he had become convinced that Senator Williams was a man of immense power in the Congress and with the Administration and he asked if the people of Oregon with all the evidences of his power and desire to act for the good of the whole State were at the peril of invoking the deadly hostility of immensely powerful [illegible] they were willing to see him slaughtered? The speaker said he was proud of our railroad system and whoever attacks that system attacks the vital paramount interests of the State. He believed that Senator Williams had found the plots of the Humboldt scheme to be an attack upon the best interests of all our people and he had therefore procured such an amendment to the bill as would not only defeat their intentions but would subserve the good of all the State. The defeat of that plan only hurts a few speculators and a monopoly which would crush out our favorite Columbia Branch road and hand over Oregon enterprise into the hands of [illegible].

He said that were he living in southern Oregon (and he might have applied the same remark to eastern Oregon) knowing what he now knows he would urge the people to give every vote for Senator Williams' re-election. And the motives which should govern the people of southern Oregon should move every man interested in the future prosperity of Portland and the contiguous counties of the Wallamet valley. As the Humboldt branch bill now stands [illegible] will be carried to completion [illegible] through Southern Oregon and make it one of the most desirable portions of our beautiful young State. He exhorted the people of Oregon to turn a deaf ear to the howl of the speculators and to stand by their own best interests. They could not do themselves a greater wrong than to defeat Senator Williams' re-election. The speaker closed amid deafening and prolonged applause.

Mr J F Caples followed Col Chapman and in opening paid a handsome tribute to the qualities of the man whose sense of right and fidelity to his convictions [illegible] had induced him to sever for the time at least his connection with the party with whom he had acted for almost a lifetime and stand up for the right. Mr Caples suggested three cheers for Col Chapman and they were given lustily and with a hearty will. Mr Caples then proceeded with a speech of more than an hour making some of the best hits and arguments to which we have listened in the campaign. The hour is too late to report him fully. He spoke with an eloquence earnestness and effect which will be felt on the day of election.

Ben Holladay, that terrible monopolist who is to be driven out of Oregon by the old clique who don't want any railroads is carrying the produce of Oregon to San Francisco at four dollars per ton. Do the merchants of Portland know what has become of the upper Columbia trade? Ask those who have kept up the rates for freight on that river to prohibitory prices.

Republicans of Portland think that repudiation is about as odious as it ever was notwithstanding the defeat of a measure of some land grabbers who have never done anything for the development of Oregon. They can not endorse repudiation because Mr Ladd Mr Pengra and one or two more didn't get the land they wanted.

AHEAD OF TIME. The practice of ante dating weekly and especially pictorial papers is becoming an amusing feature of modern newspaper enterprise. The Chicago Times acknowledges the receipt of a hebdomadal of this description bearing date of the 14th inst and containing as its latest the news of the 30th ult. The editor thinks if this emulation of "taking time by the forelock" continues we shall get the Christmas papers on the preceding 4th of July and it is not certain that they will stop when they have anticipated the date of a whole year.

The Hon John Morrissey whatever his free tendencies in other respects, is at [illegible] doing good service in the cause of protection. It is complained of him that, "he has been engaged in trotting through the tellers [illegible] against every motion to reduce the tariff on steel." The free traders are dumb-founded at this protective recreancy on the part of Democratic John and attribute it to the influence of Horace Greeley.

CANNED SALMON FISHERIES. We are endeavoring [illegible] the salmon fisheries on the Columbia [illegible] a very considerable matter. There are four extensive establishments [illegible] employed in the business [illegible] cans this season. The extent of the business may be understood partially by a statement showing the operations of one of the first of these firms. Messrs Geo W Hume & Co of Eagle Cliff employ about one hundred men in their fishery using 12 boats and nets and they put up in cans from 500 to 800 salmon daily. [illegible] year they used $16 000 proprietary stamps and shipped about 9 000 cases of fish which they will double the present season having already shipped [illegible] cases and ship by almost every steamer from 800 to 1 000 cases. Cutting & C[illegible] San Francisco are agents for this Company.

DESERTERS. The crew of the Hamburg ship Hertha who have been serving for months and in some cases for over a year at the low wages ruling in Germany find the offers in Oregon too tempting for them to pursue their voyages farther and are leaving in squads. The Captain finds this a hard [illegible] to capture his crew in there being so much liberty here for his purposes, and the consequences bad as they are must be borne by the ship we suppose. The back pay of the deserters is thus forfeited but they appear to think that they will be able to make up several months loss by one month of gain in the operation.

ANNOUNCEMENTS. The sermon Sunday evening at the Lutheran Church by Rev C S Sprecher will be on the Fourth Commandment.

There will be services to morrow morning at 11 o'clock, in the Unitarian Church the sermon being more especially to the children of the Sunday School. At [illegible] the Sunday School will have their quarterly concert to be this time a Flower Festival. The evening services will be [illegible]

The ladies of the first Congregational Church and Society contemplate holding a strawberry festival on Friday evening June 10th, place specified hereafter.

BOLD CONFIDENCE MAN. Yesterday an old gentleman at the American Exchange was approached by a plainly attired man who informed him that he was hungry—had not partaken of food since the day previous. Moved to pity by the story of the stranger the old gentleman took him into the hotel and ordered a breakfast for him and most unquestionably would have done more for him [illegible] he had not discovered him shortly after eating the breakfast provided for him dashing along the streets in a fine turn out which set him to thinking that perhaps he had been sold rather [illegible] by a confidence operator.

THE LAST NIGHT. The [illegible] Sisters who have pleased and so well entertained the public of this city at Philharmonic Hall three evenings this week will give their last exhibition at the same place this evening on which occasion will be presented the two act drama The Maid of Croissey or Theresa's Vow; a brilliant interlude of singing and dancing concluding with the laughable farce of a Stage Struck Chambermaid. This being their last appearance we advise all who want to see a good performance and have a rich treat in singing to attend.

DAMAGES [illegible] We understand that Mr Edward Kahn has commenced suit against Louis Love for damages in the sum of $25 000 for injuries sustained by the fall of the awning on March 16th last at which time, it will be recollected Mr Kahn was precipitated with the awning and badly hurt. The awning was attached to the building owned by Mr Love, in which Mr Kahn and [illegible] others do a mercantile business as tenants. The case will develop some important points of law it is thought.

WHAT WAS THE MATTER? We have heard it queried by some good Democrats as to why their meeting was held in the street on Thursday evening when the Democratic Club have Oro Fino Theater under charter for the voyage up Salt Lake. His words seem o bring conviction to every well disposed heart

We were most agreeably surprised on last Thursday by receiving a visit from Rev J Aguilar by Rev J Aguilar of Steilacoom W T accompanied by Rev Father DeGrasse pastor of Oregon City Both of these young laborers in the vineyard of our Lord, have our heartfelt thanks for many favors received at their hands

Richardson at auction to close up the estate of Mr E T Warren McMinnville is at this time a very flourishing inland town and has a future before it as promising as any other in Oregon Situated in one of the very best grain growing regions of the Wallamet valley and which is speedily to be connected with this and other seaports by railroad The mill is new and has produced a quality of flour heretofore which has been produced only in exceptional cases and can again be started in business as soon as the sale is completed. Full description of the property may be found in this paper and for further particulars apply to Mr George T Myers W ams & Myers' store on Front street below Alder

COLUMBIA SALMON FISHERIES —We are endeavoring to obtain statistics of the salmon fisheries on the Columbia which is now a very considerable matter There are four extensive establishments below the Cowlitz river, employed in the business of putting up salmon in cans this season The extent of the business may be understood partly by a statement showing the operations of one of the oldest of these firms Messrs Geo W Hume & Co, of Eagle Cliff employ about men in their fishery, using 12 boats and they put up in cans from 500 to 800 cans daily Last year they used 518 000 proprietary stamps, and shipped about 9 000 cases of salmon which they will double the present season having already shipped 2 200 cases and ship by almost every steamer from 800 to 1 000 cases. Hume & Co., of San Francisco are agents for —The crew of the Hamburg ship who have been serving for months and some for over a year at the low wages of Germany, find the offers in Oregon too tempting for them to pursue their voyages farther and are leaving in squads The Captain finds the land country to capture his crew in there is too much liberty here for his purpose, and the consequences bad as they are will be borne by the ship we suppose The pay of the deserters is thus forfeited but they probably think that they will be able to make up several months loss by one month of work in this region

—The sermon Sunday evening at the Church by Rev C S Sprecher will be on the Fourth Commandment

The services to morrow morning at the Unitarian Church the sermon especially to the children of the Sunday School At 12.30 the Sunday School will hold a concert to be this time, a Flower Festival." The evening services will be

A DESPERATE MAN.—Yesterday an old man at the American Exchange was approached by a plainly attired man who informed him that he was hungry—had not partaken of food since the day previous Moved to pity by the story of the stranger, the old gentleman took him to the hotel and ordered a breakfast for him and most unquestionably would have done more for him soon, if he had not discovered him, shortly after eating the breakfast provided for him, going along the streets in a fine turn out This set him to thinking that perhaps he had been sold rather boldly by some confidence operator.

THE LAST NIGHT —The Pixley Sisters who have so well entertained the public of this city at Philharmonic Hall three evenings this week, will give their last exhibition at the same place this evening, on which occasion will be given the two act drama 'The Maid of Munster, or The Dying Man's Vow,' a brilliant interlude of singing and dancing, concluding with the laughable farce of a "Stage Struck Chambermaid." This being their last appearance, we advise all who want to see a good performance and have a rich treat in singing to attend

DAMAGE SUIT —We understand that Mr Samuel Kahn has commenced suit against the city for damages in the sum of $25, for injuries sustained by the fall of the awning on March 18th last, at which time, it will be remembered, Mr. Kahn was precipitated with the awning and badly hurt The awning was attached to the building owned by Mr Love, in which Kahn and Brothers do a mercantile business. The case will develop some curious points of law, it is thought.

WHAT WAS THE MATTER?—We have heard it asked by some good Democrats as to why their meeting was held in the street on Thursday evening when the Democratic Club have Oro Fino Theater under charter for the voyage up Salt River. It does seem peculiar but then we suppose it was the party can t have a meeting in a house lately without a row They wanted a chance to display their muscle hence they took an open field.

LADIES, ADVANCE.—Hon J H Mitchell will speak at the Court House this evening, and it is of importance that seats will have to be secured early by those who desire to listen to him At this particular juncture of affairs it will be most interesting to hear Mr Mitchell whose ability to discuss current topics is without a superior in the State. If you want to be certain of a seat go early. The 23d Infantry Band will be in attendance.

THE NEW HOTEL —Messrs. Emil Lowenstein & Co., we learn secured the contract for furnishing the new hotel in Mr R. White s block on the corner of Front and Morrison streets The contract amounts to about $16 600 and includes the carpeting and all the furniture necessary. The hotel will probably be opened for business by the first day of August and sooner if possible.

IMPORTANT.—The Herman Doctor was reported to be in the river last night but we could trace the report no farther than to a leading Democrat, who said he "heard so That party ought to know as they take a deeper interest in the affairs of China men in Oregon than anybody else

AT THE DALLES.—Hon J F Caples will go up to The Dalles this morning and address the people of that city this evening, upon topics in this campaign. Mr Caples is one of the most effective speakers that has appeared in the canvass

FIREWORKS.—Mr S J McCormick advertises that he has in store a large quantity of fireworks and flags, comprising every variety of pyrotechnics and the best flags in the market For terms and prices see advertisement

CLOSING OUT SALE —Mr Richardson will dispose of the balance of a stock of clothing and furnishing goods to day at the Auction Rooms, besides real estate advertised to be

ORO FINO THEATER The Pixley Sisters have effected an engagement with the fascinating Lady Sisters and will appear at Oro Fino Theater on Thursday evening for a season in a series of comedies farces burlesques extravaganzas and occasionally legitimate drama What a relief this will be from the political campaign through which all Portland is now passing

ERLA F TAYLOR The vessel from New York is reported in the mouth of the river and will make her appearance in our commercial report this morning She is one of the finest that has ever yet visited these waters The Master Capt Anders is very familiar with the waters, having sailed to and from Puget Sound many years ago in the lumbering trade with San Francisco

MISSIONARY CONCERT The Monthly Missionary Concert of the Taylor street M E Sabbath School will be held to morrow afternoon at 2 o clock Programme of exercises is as follows 1 Singing by the School 2 Essay 3 Solo 4 Dialogue 5 Duett and Chorus 6 Song 7 Address 8 S 9 Quartette 10 Singing by the School — Ad ocate

Infection in the Air.

Experimental chemists have repeatedly analyzed the air at unhealthy seasons in the hope of detecting the invisible virus which produces epidemic disease They have not yet discovered it and scarcely any two of them agree as to its nature This is of little consequence It is sufficient to know that this poisonous principle exists and that a safeguard against its insidious influence has been provided In the spring and early summer when fever and ague remittent fever and other periodical diseases of that class are prevalent it is only necessary to fortify the system with a course of Hostetter s Stomach Bitters to escape them If this precaution has been neglected which it never ought to be in any district liable to such visitations and if the paroxysms of malarious fever have actually commenced and may always be checked and broken up by a course of that powerful vegetable tonic and alterative Quinine was once considered the only specific for chills and fever but it is now generally admitted that this nauseous alkaloid is a dangerous medicine and that its secondary effects are more to be dreaded that any form of intermittent fever It is simply a tremendous astringent It does not touch the disordered liver or regulate the bowels or in any way improve the condition of the animal fluids Hostetter s Bitters on the other hand in addition to being a better and safer tonic than any preparation of quinine has a balsamic effect upon the whole system It is aperient and anti bilious as well as directly invigorating and purifies the secretions as well as regulates the secretive organs It stimulates the appetite strengthens the stomach soothes the nerves promotes healthful perspiration and induces quiet sleep As a stomachic it has no rival Cases of indigestion that no other tonic seems capable of alleviating are cured in a few weeks by its regular use

The last method of combining style and economy occurred at Albany not long since A man went to an undertaker to borrow a valuable casket, covered with velvet, to use at the funeral of his brother proposing to take the body out after the funeral, place it in a plain pine coffin and return the casket to the undertaker The undertaker was nearsighted and couldn't see it

Gen. Butler sometimes puts a letter in the wrong envelope, as Hon H W Paine, found the other day at the Colby University Alumni dinner, when he attempted to read the General's "regrets" at not being present, and read the following "Sir—If Mr Whittemore told you that I had anything to do with the sale of cadetships it was a downright falsehood Yours,

The French papers have fallen into a droll mistake in their comments on some recent English divorces. Figaro, for example informs its readers that according to English jurisprudence a married lady is liable to be put away by her husband if she has a "correspondent" of the other sex The Prince of Wales it says cleared Lady Sefton of the libelous and unfounded accusation against her, by swearing that he had never been a "correspondent." And this is the reason why England has none of those admirable letter writers like Mme. de Sevigne—because a lady who writes to a gentleman makes him a co-respondent in a divorce court

A pretty Oakland girl, not over 18 years of age, brought a suit for breach of promise against a young merchant, who had changed his mind and taken a richer bride. The trial came on, and the girl's mother, a fat red faced old dame, was present in the bar, to give moral effect to the recital of her daughter's wrongs The counsel for the plaintiff, in summing up, descanted at length and with moving pathos upon the enormity of the defendant's guilt in creeping into the bosom of this family (here the old lady pinned her shawl closer) "and deceiving and disappointing this young girl." Here the venerable mother could contain herself no longer, but with gushing tears exclaimed He deceived us all, gentlemen! Me and all the rest,—me and all the rest!' The effect was magical but not just what the old lady expected.

The Hawaiian Reciprocity Treaty

[From the New York Shipping List]

On the 21st of May, 1867, a reciprocity treaty was concluded at San Francisco, between the Governments of the United States and Hawaii, better known as the Sandwich Islands, with the understanding that ratifications were to be exchanged in eighteen months from that date Subsequently the time was extended to the 21st inst., and the measure is now under consideration in Congress The Legislature of Hawaii has already ratified the treaty, but the sentiment of Congress seems to be so equally divided upon the merits of the measure, that its friends are not altogether confident of its success The delay which has occurred however, indicates that the Senate will put the treaty in such a shape that the strongest objections to it will as far as possible, be removed What opposition there is to the treaty, arises from the fact that we buy much more from the Islands than we sell to them though the fact that under reciprocity the case might be reversed is overlooked The treaty admits free of duty into all our ports the following articles, when grown or produced on the Hawaiian Islands, viz

Animals, arrow root coffee; cotton manufactured, fruits and vegetables dried and undried preserved and unpreserved, furs, hides and skins undressed, sandal, koo, and ko wood, and other ornamental woods, seeds plants, shrubs and trees, sugar not above No 12 Dutch standard in color, syrups of sugar and molasses, tallow

On the other hand the treaty admits free of duty into all the ports of the Hawaiian Islands the following articles grown or produced in the United States, viz —

Agricultural implements animals, beef, bacon ham, pork and preserved meats boots and shoes bread and breadstuffs bricks lime and cement bullion cordage and naval stores copper and composition, sheathing nails and bolts, cotton manufactures bleached and unbleached, colored stained, painted or printed not exceeding one hundred and sixty threads to the square inch, counting the warp and filling, fish dried and pickled, and oysters fruits and vegetables dried or undried, preserved or unpreserved gold and silver coin hardware hides furs skins and felts undressed, hoop iron and rivets ice iron and steel, leather, tallow lumber and timber of all kinds, round, hewed and sawed, unmanufactured in whole or in part, machinery oats and hay paper, stationery and books, petroleum and all other oils for illuminating and lubricating purposes plants, shrubs and trees refined sugar rice stoves and heating apparatus, woolen manufactures other than ready made clothing

Certificates of consuls or customs collectors are to be taken as proof that articles have the right of free admission under the treaty, and it is further provided that both Governments shall pass necessary laws to give it effect, if it is ratified it is to remain in force for seven years from the date at which it may go into operation, and further until the expiration of twelve months after either of the high contracting parties shall give notice to the other of its wish to terminate the same each of the high contracting parties being at liberty to give such notice to the other at the end of said term of seven years or at any time hereafter

There are many considerations why the treaty should be ratified among the most important of which is the fact that the Islands lie on the great highway between the United States and the shores of Asia, and ought never to pass from under our immediate commercial and political influence to that of foreign powers, which might be the case if the treaty were rejected A close commercial alliance in the nature of a reciprocity treaty, would be the natural result of a political alliance which has done so much to prevent the Islands from falling under English and French domination

The official statistics recently published for 1869, show an increase of the export trade of the Hawaiian Islands The exports last year amounted to $2,336,358 83, against $1 89? 215 63 in 1868 The imports for 1869 were $2 040, 068 10 against $1 935 760 72 The chief article of produce was sugar, of which 18 302,110 pounds were exported in 1869 mainly to San Francisco, against 18 312 926 pounds in the previous year The rice crop of last year was double that of the previous year amounting to about 2 000 000 pounds The coffee export was 340 841 pounds, which is an increase over previous years, but the production of this crop is affected by the low prices which have prevailed in Central America and Brazil

Pat Bradford, formerly largely interested in Idaho mines is now at Silver City

The crops in Jordon valley are growing finely The hay harvest promises to be abundant

The Gold Hill Mining Company have cleaned up four thousand two hundred dollars the proceeds of ten days run

Work on all the leading mill mines is being prosecuted this spring with renewed vigor and with greatly improved prospects

Mr Clark n pioneer farmer of Boise valley reports that at no time since the settlement of that country has the prospects looked so well for a large harvest of grain but he fears the late frosts and cold weather has damaged very materially the fruit and vegetables that were just beginning to sprout

REPUBLICAN PLATFORM

The Union Republican party of Oregon in Convention assembled makes this declaration of its principles and policy

1st Unfaltering devotion to the Union first last and forever and unwavering fidelity to the Constitution and its amendments and to the laws of our National Legislature

2d We wholly approve the principles and policy of the administration of President Grant as carrying into practical application the principles for which we have successfully striven And we particularly commend these points in his Inaugural Address wherein he declares "let it be understood that no repudiator of one farthing of our public debt will be trusted in public places and it will go far towards strengthening a credit which ought to be the best in the world and I will protect the law abiding citizen whether of native or foreign birth wherever his rights are jeopardized or the flag of our country floats and I will have no policy to enforce against the will of the people

3d We have confidence that the Administration will wisely and firmly protect the interests and sustain the dignity of the Nation in respect to other nations and especially with regard to our just claims against Great Britain

4th We denounce all forms of repudiation as a national crime and the national honor requires the payment of the public indebtedness in the uttermost good faith to all creditors at home or abroad, not only according to the letter, but the spirit of the laws under which it was contracted And for this purpose we favor a strict economy in the Administration of the National Government and the application of such payment of all surplus revenue from whatever sources derived and that taxation should be equalized and reduced as rapidly as the national faith will permit

5th We make no distinction between citizens whether of foreign or native birth and that we sympathize now and ever with men of all nationalities striving for self government

6th That we are opposed to any change in our naturalization laws which shall admit to citizenship any foreigners not now entitled thereto under said laws

7th We favor a judicious system of railroad and river improvements in Oregon in order to develop our resources and invite settlement of our unoccupied territory—and for this purpose insist that Congress should make us liberal grants of aid

8th We are in favor of a tariff for revenue with such discriminations in favor of our domestic manufactures as will not diminish its efficiency for the purposes of revenue

9th We favor universal amnesty to the people of those States lately in rebellion which have been restored to full relations in the Union

10th We are in favor of fostering the cause of education and are opposed to any diversion of the common school funds of this State to any other purpose than the support of common schools

11th We recognize in the Union Republican party the measures and men who saved the Government from destruction and that its continuance in power is the only sure safeguard to national peace and prosperity And with this platform we appeal to the voters of Oregon for their suffrages and support

Dr Gibbon's Dispensary,

623 KEARNEY STREET NEAR COMMERCIAL, San Francisco Established in 1854 for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases such as Gonorrhoea, Gleet, Stricture Syphilis in all its forms Seminal Weakness Impotency, etc Skin Diseases (of years standing) and Ulcerated Legs successfully treated

Horrible Diseases.

How many thousands of persons, both male and female are there who are suffering out a miserable existence from the effects of secret indulgences or from virus absorbed into the system! Look at their pallid emaciated and disfigured faces and their broken-down constitutions, disqualify up them for the happiness of marriage or the enjoyment of life In this horrid situation thousands suffer until death closes the scene Let parents, guardians, friends attend to those who are suffering with any of these horrible life-destroying maladies see that they are cared for and cured before it be too late. Send them immediately to Doctor Gibbon, a physician who has made private disease his especial study for years and who is certain to cure the most inveterate cases without mercury or any injurious drugs. It is important to those who are afflicted or to those who are interested in the welfare of their friends to be careful of the many pretended doctors who infest all cities, publishing their skill in curing all diseases in a few days imposing upon the public by using the names of eminent physicians from Europe and other places Be therefore careful and make strict inquiry or you may fall into the hands of those charlatans.

Seminal Weakness.

Seminal Emissions, the consequence of self-abuse. Caution to the Unfortunate.

Beware of the San Francisco quacks and pretenders who with bogus sworn to certificates dupe the unwary Some of the self styled doctors whose names are to be found in the daily and weekly newspapers of San Francisco and other places are tradesmen, and became too lazy to work at their trades Some are tinsmiths shoemakers, newspaper carriers intelligence office keepers etc Look over the San Francisco Directory and you will not find their Medical Institutes in it but you will find their former occupations in it Look at the Directory for 1862 and 1868 The only way to avoid imposition is to make enquiry—it will cost you nothing and may save you many regrets; for as advertising physicians in eight cases out of ten are bogus there is no safety in trusting any of them until you know who and what they are Dr Gibbon does not deceive people by exhibiting bogus titles certificates, pretended patient's letters etc Dr Gibbon will satisfy persons who may call at his office of his ability to treat diseases that he proposes to cure
